SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In 1955, we entered Wheatfield High School with 64 students. With Miss Hammerstein as our sponsor we elected the following officers; Darrell Allen, president; Richard Boezeman, vice president; Ray Wireman, treasurer; Dianne Bricker, secretary; senators were Louise Grube and Eddie Allyn.

Entering into our Sophomore year our class had decreased to 53. Under the direction of Mr. Jones, we chose the following officers; Richard Boezeman, president; Eldon Jeffries, vice president; Roger Wahl, secretary; Darrell Allen, treasurer; and Dianne Bricker and Curt Martin, senators. During the first part of the school year we ordered our class sweaters, which were turquoise with white trim.

Our Junior year was very exciting. With Mr. Taylo as our sponsor we elected the following officers; Alice Finney, president; Dianne Bricker, vice president; Thelma Ratliff and Roger Wahl as senators. Under the direction of Miss Figert, we gave our class play named "Men are Like Streetcars." We chose our class rings with the Premier design. The biggest expenditure was the Junior-Senior prom, with "Hawaiian Cruise" as our theme.

We entered the most exciting part of our school years with 43 Seniors. Under the direction of Miss Brown, we elected the following officers; Eddie Allyn, president; Curt Martin, vice president; Leona Lauraitis, secretary; Alice Finney, treasurer; and Richard Boezeman and Eldon Jeffries, senators. We gave our Senior play entitled, "Happy Daze" with Miss Stine as our director.

With our school days coming to an end, we will all remember the pleasant memories we have had here at Wheatfield High School.

CLASS PROPHECY

"1959" CLASS OF WHEATFIELD HIGH SCHOOL REUNION

CHICAGO, Illinois, May 13, 1969 --The tenth annual reunion of the class of "59" from Wheatfield, Indiana is being attended by many well known personalities.

Darrel Allen has just returned after climbing one of the highest mountains in the Himalayas, which is said to be a more rigorous climb than Mr. Everest.

Dianne Bricker and Leona Lauraitis are secretaries for the world's largest oil company, "Allyn and Jefferies", which was organized when these two prospectors discovered oil under the Antarctic Ocean.

Four from the class, Paul Hoffman, John Ooms, Lawrence Peshel, and Tony Caldanaro have joined the police forces of various mid-west states.

Steve Mathis and Curt Martin started a trucking line with an old 1949 pickup truck and now run the "Martin & Mathis" trucking line composed of one thousand trucks of all sizes.

After completing law school, three of the class formed a law office now known internationally as "Tysen, Tysen, and Norrick, Lawyers and Private Detectives."

Louise Grube, Carol Dase, and Ann Sculley are stewardesses for the Rick Boezeman Airlines, Inc., operating all over the world.

James Black and Kenneth Stewart now have one of the largest farms in the United States and their products are marketed in all parts of the world.

Richard Odle, William Hart and Bill Davis are supervising construction of the one mile high office building being built in New York City. The famous designers of this building are Ronald Stanton and Russel Gorley. They work from designs which were originated by designers before them. To finance this building, the multi-million dollar woman bankers, Pat DeVries, Sarah Wiggs, and Caroline Mueller, consented to lend the necessary amount.

The world famous columnist, Joyce Wolf, was present. Marian Craig, secretary to Miss Wolf, also attended the reunion.

Alice Finney, the nurse who helped develop a vaccine against Cancer, is now working on a vaccine for the new African flu.

Mary Misch, Loretta Nelson, Linda Robbins, Judith Stewart, Mary Thies, and Gloria Hernandez have formed the largest chain of beauty parlors and reducing salons in the world. They now have branches operating in Hollywood, Chicago, New Orleans, Miami, San Francisco, Las Vegas, Detroit, Indianapolis, and New York City.

Roger Wahl is with the United Nations forces which are on the first manned satellite in outer space.
